Venue: It is important to verify the location of the venue at least one day before to avoid being late. The date of assessment cannot be changed, and in case of inclement weather, we shall be informing all schools on the date of assessment before 8am via e-mail, should the event be postponed. Students following SCDP at Year 8 are not requested to attend.

Kit: Applicants are to wear their preferred sports kit. It is suggested that enough drinking water is brought by the students. Parents and guardians are not allowed to enter the venue for any reason. The event may be photographed only by our official photographer. Event photos will be uploaded on our Facebook Page, Physical Education Malta and Gozo. Applicants and parents/guardians are to refrain from asking assessors for personal feedback about the student's performance.

Sick: In case of sickness applicants will be given a second opportunity to undergo the same practical assessment on 14th December 2022, 12.30pm to 2.00pm (same venue). No more SCDP Football trials will be made available during the second term and the third term.

Results: Results will be sent via e-mail towards the second week of December. Applicants will be receiving a Pass or Fail message (only) without any ranking or further information. Results cannot be contested. Out of location applicants are not guaranteed a place.

IMPORTANT NOTE: A pass in the Practical Assessment does not automatically mean that a place in the programme is guaranteed as this is subject to availability depending on student's academic track.
