Your options:

the subject can be chosen either at SEC or AVC level:

SEC HOSPITALITY

- One unit per year
- Includes both theoretical and practical units
 - Each unit focuses on a different aspect.

AVC Hospitality

- A variety of topics are covered each year
 - Focuses more on the practical (hands-on) method.
 - Assignments are still done each year (will have both theory and practice)

SEC Hospitality - assessment mode

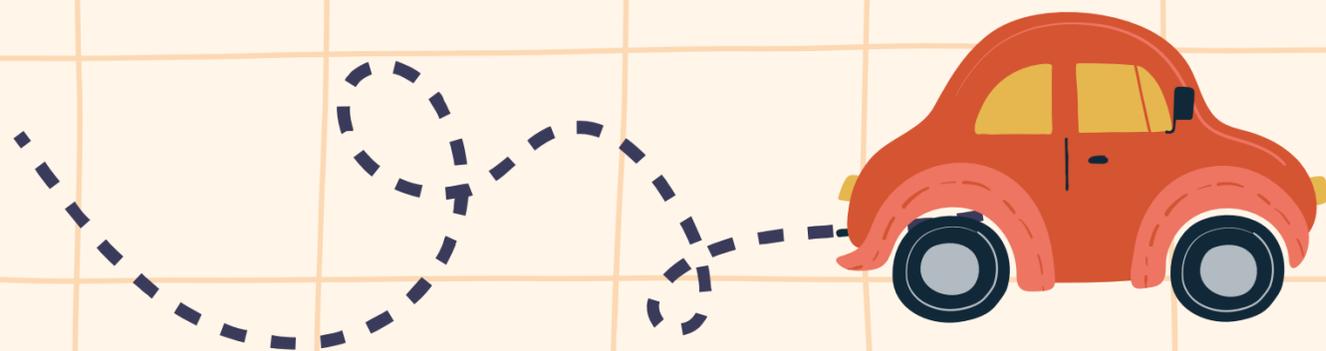

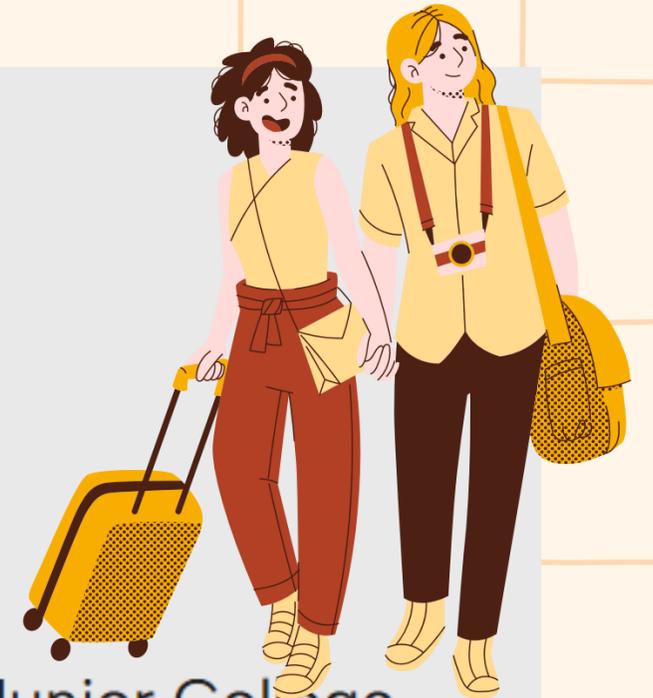

30% school-based assessment (SBA) based on practical tasks

30% coursework

40% written exam in year 11

By the end of the three years, you will obtain a SEC certification.

This is recognised in all post-secondary institutions including ITS, MCAST and Junior College.

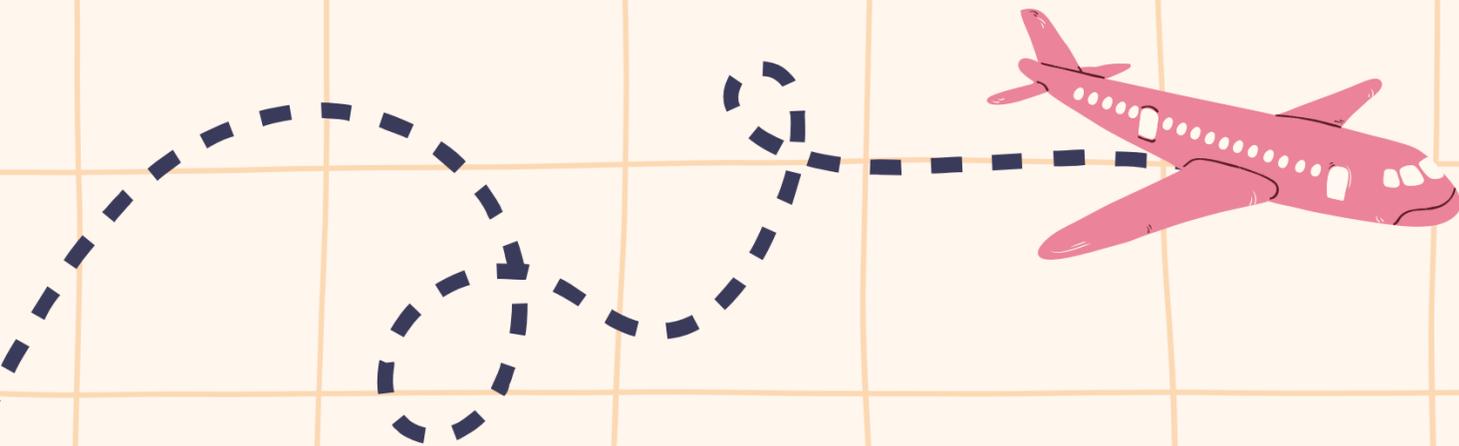

AVC HOSPITALITY - assessment mode

A number of assessment tasks, mainly based on practical tasks carried out in class.

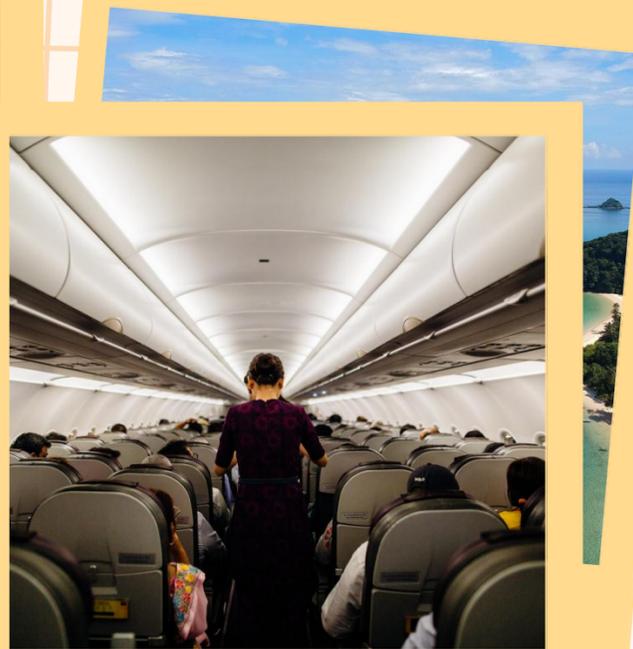

Each year one of the assessments will be issued centrally by DQSE.

By the end of the three years, you will obtain an Applied Vocational Certificate (AVC) result.
